RESEARCH INTERESTS

The design and functioning of institutional arrangements for the allocation, management and use of western US water resources, given stressors associated with population growth, climate variability and change, energy development, and other factors.

EDUCATION

- Ph.D. University of Arizona, School of Renewable Natural Resources: Renewable Natural Resource Studies (Minor: Political Science)
- M.S. University of Michigan, School of Natural Resources: Natural Resource Policy and Administration
- B.A. University of Colorado, Department of Biology: Environmental, Population, and Organismic Biology

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

University of Colorado Law School, NATURAL RESOURCES LAW CENTER, 1996 to present
Director, Western Water Policy Program: 2007 to present
Senior Research Associate: 2005 to present
Research Associate: 1996 to 2005.

University of Colorado Environmental Studies Program
Lecturer & Core Faculty Member: 2005 to present.

Western Water Assessment, CU-CIRES/NOAA
Researcher: 2000 to present
Deputy Director: 2005 to 2008
Management Team: 2003 to 2005.

Other University of Colorado Academic Affiliations:

Center for Science & Technology Policy Research (CU-CIRES): Faculty Affiliate, 2003 to present

Renewable and Sustainable Energy Initiative (RASEI),
Faculty Affiliate, 2008 to present

Universities Council on Water Resources, Lead CU Delegate (formerly Delegate), 2009 to present.

Independent Consultant, 1994 to 1996

ACF/ACT Comprehensive Study, Phase 2 – August 1995 to December 1996

IDB Water Management Study – July to September 1995

ACF/ACT Comprehensive Study, Phase 1 – March 1994 to June 1995.

University of Arizona, 1990 to 1993; Graduate Research Associate, 1990 to 1993

TEACHING

- Water Resources and Environmental Sustainability* (formerly Climate, Resources and Environmental Sustainability) (ENVS 5810). Co-taught with John Pitlick and Martyn Clark, Spring 2003; and with John Pitlick, Spring 2004 and Fall 2004. Taught solo in Fall 2005, Spring 2007, Fall 2008, Fall 2009, and Spring 2011. University of Colorado, Environmental Studies Program.
- Independent Studies in Environmental Studies* (ENVS 5909). Supervised 4 students from Environmental Studies, Law, and Engineering on independent study projects. Spring 2008.
- Advanced Seminar in Natural Resources*. Co-taught with Gary Bryner and Kathryn Mutz. University of Colorado School of Law. Fall, 2001.
