

EDEN ROLLAND, ESQ.

University of Colorado Law School ♦ Boulder, CO ♦ eden.rolland@colorado.edu

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

University of Colorado Law School ♦ Boulder, Colorado July 2023 – Present
Visiting Legal Writing Assistant Professor: Teach Legal Writing I and II courses to first-year law students.

Fowler, Schimberg, Flanagan & McLetchie, P.C. ♦ Golden, Colorado July 2016 – Present
Associate Attorney: Civil litigation practice with focus on governmental entity and insurance-referred defense matters litigated in Colorado state and federal courts at district court and appellate levels. Handle pre-trial discovery practice, including written discovery and deposition preparation. Experienced with successful track record in pretrial motions practice, including Rule 12 and Rule 56 motions. Starting in September 2023, handle ad hoc projects with emphasis on performing research and writing for ongoing litigation matters.

Denver City Attorney's Office ♦ Denver, Colorado Sept. 2015 – July 2016
Claims Litigation Fellow: Defended the City and County of Denver in claims matters at all phases of litigation; knowledge and skills acquisition in governmental immunity, constitutional claims, small claims, and pre-trial and post-trial motions practice.

SELECT LAW STUDENT PRACTICE EXPERIENCES

U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado ♦ Denver, Colorado Fall 2014
Extern for the Honorable Kristen L. Mix, United States Magistrate Judge: Drafted judicial recommendations; projects included disposition of motions to dismiss, motions to amend pleadings, and motions for entry of default judgment.

U.S. House of Representatives, Office of the Legislative Counsel ♦ Washington, D.C. Summer 2014
Summer Associate: Drafted congressional resolutions, bills, and amendments; communicated with congressional clients to expedite drafting requests.

Colorado Office of Administrative Courts ♦ Denver, Colorado Spring 2014
Extern and Law Clerk: Reviewed case documents, analyzed legal issues, and prepared legal memoranda for Colorado Administrative Law Judges in workers' compensation claims matters and administrative appeals.

Colorado Lawyers Committee ♦ Denver, Colorado Summer 2013
Summer Associate: Supported the Committee's public interest mission through researching law and public policy issues, preparing for and attending task force meetings and pro bono legal nights, and assisting in communications with law firms and lawyer volunteers.

ADDITIONAL PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System ♦ Phoenix, Arizona Jan. – June 2012
Office of Intergovernmental Relations, Legislative Analyst: Tracked state and federal legislation impacting Arizona's state-administered Medicaid program. Supported the agency's integrated health care demonstration projects through internal communication, external surveys and public outreach, and document production for interagency submissions.

Arizona State Legislature ♦ Phoenix, Arizona Nov. 2003 – Dec. 2011
Health Committee Nonpartisan Analyst, Arizona State Senate (Oct. 2008 – Dec. 2011): Analyzed proposed legislation assigned to the Senate Health Committee and tracked bills through the legislative process. Wrote summaries, prepared amendments, and delivered oral presentations in weekly legislative committee meetings. Engaged with elected officials, legislative staff, and multiple stakeholders and maintained confidentiality among diverse party interests.

Multiple staff positions, Arizona House of Representatives (Nov. 2003 – Oct. 2008): Lead nonpartisan analyst for the House Human Services Committee; analyzed and tracked legislation for the House Natural Resources & Agriculture Committee; archived and maintained all official bill files in Chief Clerk's office.

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO LAW SCHOOL ♦ Boulder, Colorado
Juris Doctor, Certificate in Health Law & Policy

May 2015

ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY, BARRETT HONORS COLLEGE ♦ Tempe, Arizona
B.A. Political Science, summa cum laude; Certificate in International Studies

May 2003

LICENSURE AND AFFILIATIONS

Licensed to practice law in the State of Colorado, U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, and Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Member of Colorado Bar Association, Colorado Defense Lawyers Association, and Colorado Women's Bar Association.