

Mark A. Fogg
E-Mail: mfogg@copic.com

- General Counsel, COPIC
- Health Law Practice
- President of the Colorado Bar Association, 2012-2013
- Best Corporate Counsel Award, 2013
- President of the Denver Bar Association, 2008-2009
- President of Kennedy Childs & Fogg, P.C. , 2000-2006
- President of the Catholic Lawyers Guild, 2002
- Board of Directors, Colorado Judicial Institute
- Board of Directors, Escuela de Guadalupe Elementary School
- Fellow, American College of Trial Lawyers
- Chair, Colorado Bar Association Professionalism Committee 2006-2007
- Selected for the Best Lawyers in America, Medical Malpractice & Personal Injury Litigation
- Selected for Colorado Super Lawyers, Health Care
- Lead Counsel in over 200 civil and criminal jury trials

Mr. Fogg has practiced in Colorado for thirty-three years. He is currently General Counsel at COPIC, a company providing medical liability insurance and patient safety/risk management education. His practice was previously comprised of defense of health care related claims including medical malpractice, medical board matters, anti-competitive claims, hospital related matters and risk management consulting while at Kennedy Childs & Fogg, P.C. from 1985-2011. He has lectured extensively in these areas. He is President of the Colorado Bar Association. He was the President of the Denver Bar Association from 2008-2009 and received the Denver Bar Association Award of Merit in 2010 for extraordinary service to the legal profession and the administration of justice. He received the 2013 Best Corporate Counsel Award sponsored by the Denver Business Journal and the Association of Corporate Counsel. He received the 2011 CU Law Distinguished Alumni Award in private practice. He is a past President of the Catholic Lawyers Guild of Colorado and received the St. Thomas More Award in 2005 given to attorneys exemplifying the intellect, integrity, and moral courage of St. Thomas More. He was the Chair of the Denver Bar Association Professionalism Committee from 2004-2006. He was the Chair of the Colorado Bar Association Professionalism Committee from 2006 to 2007. He was the coordinator of the Professionalism Vignette Project in 2006-2007 which received the 2009 American Bar Association E. Smythe Gambrell Professionalism Award for the Colorado Bar Association/Denver Bar Association. He is currently an appointed member of the Chief Justice's Commission on the Legal Profession and Chair of the working group regarding new lawyers. He served on the Colorado Bar Association Ethics Committee for fifteen years. He was a Chief Deputy District Attorney in the Denver District Attorney's Office. He received his education at James Madison College, Michigan State University, graduating magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa, and his law degree from the University of Colorado where he received the William O. DeSouchet Award for best trial team.