

Dear Students:

Cultural Property Law will meet on Tuesdays & Thursdays from 1-2:15 in Rm 304. I will be teaching the class from the draft of my Cultural Property Law casebook (forthcoming from Aspen). Chapters and related materials will be posted on the class TWEN site.

In advance of the first week, please:

(1) Register for the course TWEN site (Carpenter, Cultural Property Law 2011-12)

(2) For class #1, read the following materials available in the folder "Course Materials" subfolder "Introduction"

Introductory Chapter

The Possessed

Complaint in Peru v. Yale (you need not read every word)

First Lady Op-Ed (we may get to these last 4 in the second class)

Yale Responds

Peru-Yale MOU

Yachay Wasi statement on tourism

(3) For class #2, read the remainder of the materials in "Course Materials" "Introduction" subfolder

In Defense of Property (pages 1022-1046 only)

Brown et al

Email me with any questions at kristen.carpenter@colorado.edu. Thanks.

Kristen Carpenter

Kristen A. Carpenter
Associate Dean for Faculty Development & Associate Professor of Law
University of Colorado Law School
Wolf Law Building, 401 UCB
Boulder, CO 80309-0401
kristen.carpenter@colorado.edu