Contracts
Professor Andrew A. Schwartz
Course Information

Class Meetings
- Time: Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, 9:00-10:10 a.m.
- Room: Wolf 204.
- First Assignment: Read and be prepared to discuss pages 1-20 of the Casebook.
- Please bring the Casebook and Selections to every class.

Required Materials
- Farnsworth et al., Cases And Materials On Contracts, 7th ed. 2008 (“Casebook”).
- Farnsworth et al., Selections For Contracts, 2008 ed. (“Selections”).

Recommended Study Aid
- Farnsworth, Contracts, 4th ed. 2004.\(^1\)

Course Structure
- Students will be called on at random in class and will be expected to be prepared to discuss the relevant assignment.
- If you are unprepared, please leave a note to that effect on the lectern before class, and I will not call on you that day.
- A seating chart will be circulated on the second day of class, so please choose a seat that day where you will be comfortable for the rest of the semester.

Examination, Class Participation and Grading
- Your grade will be based on an in-class open-book final examination.
- Class participation is a vital part of this course and of law school in general, and all students are expected to contribute to the classroom discussion. To facilitate a free and diverse exchange of ideas and viewpoints, your grade will not be affected in any way by your class participation.

Contact Information and Office Hours
- Email: andrew.schwartz@colorado.edu
- Phone: (303) 492-8724
- Office hours will be held in my office (Wolf 408) on Tuesdays from 2-4 p.m., or by appointment.

Lunch Outings
- All students are cordially invited to join me for lunch on Thursdays in small groups of up to six or seven. Please sign up in advance outside my office and meet there at 11:40 a.m. on the appointed day.

\(^1\) Please note that I recommend the one-volume Farnsworth treatise intended for law students, not the three-volume version intended for practicing attorneys. A copy will be placed on reserve in the library.