Foundations of American Natural Resources Law Fall 2006
Professor Charles Wilkinson

The assignments for the first two days of class are as follows.

Monday, August 28th:
Indian and Early American Views of Nature, Property, Government, and Population

Crossing, Chapter 1;

The book, Crossing the Next Meridian, will be in the bookstore. The Readings, which are the principal reading materials for the course, are on CD; you can pick up your CD from Cynthia Carter in the Faculty Assistants office in room 434. The Readings are also posted on the TWEN site.

Wednesday, August 30th:

A syllabus for the first half of the semester is posted on the TWEN site.