

MICHAEL J. WAGGONER
CURRICULUM VITAE
2006

PUBLICATIONS:

Articles:

- “Bush v. Gore May Be Wrong, But It Is Legitimate,” SALT Equalizer, Dec. 2001
- “Guaranteed Individual Retirement Accounts: A Way To Fix Social Security,” 90 Tax Notes 1883-85 (March 26, 2001).
- “The Roth IRA Cuts Federal Revenues, With No Benefit to Taxpayers,” 1999 MSU/DCL Law Rev. 39-49 (Issue No. 1, Spring)
- “New Rule 50 May End Directed Verdicts for Plaintiffs,” 22 S.W. Univ. L. Rev. 389-92 (Issue No. 2, Spring 1992)
- “Fifty Years of Bernhard v. Bank of America Is Enough: Collateral Estoppel Should Require Mutuality but Res Judicata Should Not,” 12 Rev. of Litig. 391-440 (Issue No. 2, Spring 1993)
- "Section 1404(a), 'Where it Might Have Been Brought': Brought By Whom?" 1988 Brigham Young Univ. L. Rev. 67-88 (Issue No. 1, Spring 1988)
- "Log-Rolling and Judicial Review," 52 Univ. Colo. L. Rev. 33-47 (Issue No. 1, Fall 1981)
- "Eliminating the Capital Gains Preference. Part II: The Problems of Corporate Taxation," 49 Univ. Colo. L. Rev. 9-63 (Issue No. 1, Fall 1977)
- "Eliminating the Capital Gains Preference. Part I: The Problems of Inflation, Averaging and Lock-in," 48 Univ. Colo. L. Rev. 313-98 (Issue No. 3, Spring 1977)
- "Civil Procedure," 1977 Annual Survey of Colorado Law 23-49 (1978)
- "Civil Procedure," 1976 Annual Survey of Colorado Law 23-49 (1977)
- "Civil Procedure," 1975 Annual Survey of Colorado Law 17-43 (1976)
- "Neighborhood Law Offices: The New Wave in Legal Services for the Poor," 80 Harv. L. Rev. 805-50 (1967) (Co-author)
- "Developments in the Law: Confessions," 79 Harv. L. Rev. 935-1119 (1966) (Co-author)
- Case Note, 79 Harv. L. Rev. 841-44 (1966), reprinted in 2 Emerson, Haber & Dorsen, Political and Civil Rights in the United States 1276-79 (Student Ed. 1967)

In preparation:

Articles:

- Reforming Social Security through a system of government-guaranteed personal accounts
- Improving index mutual funds
- Improving federal income tax treatment of alimony

SERVICE:

Law School:

Acting Assistant Dean for Admissions and Financial Aid 2005 - 2006

While performing of the duties of this full time position, I also taught an overload.

Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, 1998 – 2004

While performing the duties of this full time position, I also taught a substantial and sometimes full teaching load, and served as

Acting Associate Dean for Student Affairs, 2003-2004, and

While performing the duties of these two full time positions, I also served as

Acting Director of Operations and Financial Management, 2004

Director of Legal Writing, 1981-84, 2000-03

Faculty Adviser, Colorado Journal of International Environmental Law and Policy, 2000

Judge of Rothgerber Moot Court Competition, 1973-present

Member and normally chair of Faculty Committee on Admissions and Financial Aid,

One of the most labor-intensive faculty committees.

Has helped to attract one of the most able and diverse student bodies on the Boulder Campus.

Service on most Law School committees at one time or another.

Faculty Advisor, Women and the Law Day, 1976, 1978, 1979

Presentations about law school to high school students, boy scouts, etc

Campus:

Member, Council of Associate Deans, 1998-2004

Attendee, Chairs Breakfast, 1998-2004

Member, BFA Committee on Academic Program Planning, and Standards 1986-89
(Acting Chair, Summer 1986, Vice Chair 1988-89)

Member, Chancellor's Space Management Committee, 1982-86

Member, Campus Energy Committee, 1982-86

Chairman, Faculty Appeals Committee 1976-81

Member, Faculty Discipline Committee 1975-76

Colorado:

Boulder Valley School District Accountability/Advisory Committee, 1996–99

Colorado ACLU:

Board of Directors, Chair of Litigation Committee, 1983-85

Litigation Panel, 1983-93

Advising Denver area charities about federal income tax changes in the treatment of charitable contributions and foundations, March 1982

Advising Chicano Education Project on property tax and school finance reform, 1976-82. The matter resulted in litigation which ultimately rejected the challenge.

Advising those attending annual convention of Colorado-Wyoming Museum Association about federal income tax problems of museums, April 1976

Other:

Wrote ABA Comments on portions of 1976 Tax Reform Act

Co-counsel in Weissinger v. Boswell, U.S. Federal District Court for the Middle District of Alabama, action to equalize property taxation in Alabama, 1972-76

Co-counsel in actions to prevent funding cut-off of Migrant Legal Services Program and Jackson, Miss. legal services program, 1973

Co-counsel on appeal to U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia in Mayers v. Ridley, action to enjoin Recorder of Deeds from accepting racially restrictive covenants, 1971

HONORS AND AWARDS:

1990 Minority Law Students—Recognition Award

1988 Certificate of Merit from Colorado Hispanic Bar Association for contributions to minority education

1980 Law School Faculty Humanist Award (second recipient)

1975 Student Bar Association Award for Service to Law School (first recipient)

EDUCATION:

A.B., European History with Honors in Social Thought, Stanford 1964

LL.B., magna cum laude, Harvard Law School 1967

Board of Editors, Harvard Law Review 1965-67

Technical Editor, Harvard Civil Rights/Civil Liberties Law Review 1966-67

EXPERIENCE IN HIGHER EDUCATION:

All at the University of Colorado Law School and also appear under “Service.”

Acting Assistant Dean for Admissions and Financial Aid 2005 - 2006

While performing of the duties of this full time position, I also taught an overload.

Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, 1998 – 2004

While performing the duties of this full time position, I also taught a substantial and sometimes full teaching load, and served as

Acting Associate Dean for Student Affairs, 2003-2004, and

While performing the duties of these two full time positions, I also served as

Acting Director of Operations and Financial Management, 2004

Director of Legal Writing, 1981-84, 2000-03

Associate Professor, University of Colorado Law School 1973 - _____

EXPERIENCE IN OTHER THAN HIGHER EDUCATION:

Associate, Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering, Washington, D.C., 1971-73

Attorney/Adviser and Capt., USAF evaluating Legal Information Through Electronics System for computerizing legal research, in Denver, 1970-71. This system evolved into the now widely-used Lexis computerized research service.

Attorney/Adviser and Capt., USAF in Office of the General Counsel of the Air Force, the Pentagon, 1968-70

Law Clerk, Evaluation Section, Antitrust Division, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., Summer 1967

Field Research under Walter E. Meyer Research Institute of Law on "Legal Services Programs," nation-wide, Summer 1966

Law Clerk, Covington & Burling, Washington, D.C., Summer 1966

Field Research on racial discrimination in sentencing in rape cases in Texas, Summer 1965, for Law Students Civil Rights Research Committee

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES:

Member, District of Columbia Bar

Member, Tax Section, American Bar Association

Associate Member, Boulder Bar Association and Colorado Bar Association

COURSES:

Civil Procedure I & II, 1973-74 to present

Income Tax, 1973-74 to present

Tax Policy Seminar, 1973-74 to present

State and Local Taxes and Finance, 1976 to present

Supervising students in Extern Program and in Independent Study, 1973-74 to present

Corporate Income Tax, 1984-85, 1985-86

Federal Courts, 1983-84

Advanced Income Tax, 1979-80, 1980-81

Legal Writing, 1973-74, 1984

Appellate Advocacy, 1973-74, 1984

Legal Methods, Special Academic Assistance Program, Summer 1974

Remedies, Special Academic Assistance Program, Summer 1976, Summer 1978

Personal Property, Summer Diversity Program, Summer 1980, Summer 1982

Legal Methods, Summer Diversity Program, Summer 1984, Summer 1986, Summer 1987, Summer 1990, Summer 1993

THESIS OR DISSERTATION DIRECTION:

Bud Lacey and Peggy Hite (both Business)

GRANTS AND CONTRACTS ON WHICH CANDIDATE WAS A PRINCIPAL INVESTIGATOR:

Walter E. Meyer Research Institute of Law Grant, Summer 1966